Customer Reviews

i was able to play most of these songs but some of the music didnt even sound right and i could clearly see they were just plane wrong. if you watch videos of playing you can clearly see there not playing the same cord patterns as in this book

These are, well, the greatest hits of the folk/rock trio from the 70's, America. I've used this book to learn to play Ventura Highway (except the intro -- too hard to pick that for this amateur!), Tin Man, and Horse With No Name.

I enjoyed listening to America's music growing up, and now enjoy playing it as an adult. Brings back good memories with these chart topping hits which are easy to play time and again.

Nice music book for the guitar chords. BUT, only the lead vocal was charted. Not the harmonies. (Which is what America was know for)

Bought this to replace my original from the 70's. Lot's of good songs in this one with clear chord graphs for guitar.

Very nice and easy arrangements even though most of the songs were not written for piano.

Good print, with lyrics, chord shapes, and melody. A lot of repeated chords in these tunes so this may be good for a rookie to intermediate jammer.
