Book by Duncan, Brett, Turner, Gary

I bought this book along with the progressive guitar method book 1 about four years ago and this is without a doubt the best beginner songbook out there. The book is all in melody notes and chords. The notes are large so there is no problem reading and deciphering them. It contains about fifty or so pages. If you start learning the guitar and need a complimentary songbook this is the one to get. I highly recommend it.

The book was delivered in a timely manner. It was a simplified edition as stated. However, I was a disappointed in how outdated all the songs in the book were.
