Rating: 3.5 starsThe first part of the book is a 3-star. The last quarter of the book is 4-star.I enjoyed Hidden Wings. There is a lot of action and suspense, along with a few surprises.Hidden Wings is a

YA Paranormal Romance with Angels and Demons...and of course some normal people and not so normal things thrown in. This is the beginning of the romance between Emma and Kade (which since I'd read book 5 before reading book 1, I already knew about). Good versus evil and a prophecy of a Nephilim child. Prepare to cry. The story begins with Emma losing her parents in a car crash. Her guardianship is taken over by a relative that she has never even heard of, let alone met. Emma is plucked from her normal life and delivered to Alaska where she discovers that the world she once knew was a lie, a shadow, and there are monsters lurking. The book didn't grab me the way ARV-3 did, but it was a pretty good story. I was surprised by the cliffhanger though...which made me want to pick up book 2 immediately.

This book kept me interested throughout its entirety, including the bonus short story that explains the life of Emma's parents. There were a few things, though, that rubbed me the wrong way. The main thing was that things tended to get explained 3-4 times. Throughout the book, the existence of nephilim and what they were was explained at least twice, and twice to three times in the bonus story. Other than that, I really enjoyed the storyline and found that it was original and entrancing. I was pulled into the storyline and enjoyed every moment of it. I will gladly put aside the issues I had and continue the series, as I believe they were only surface flaws, and the story itself deserves to be read. You'll enjoy this book if you like heartbreak, forbidden romance, paranormal sub genres, and super hot males. Seriously. I want to date Dominic.

'Hidden Wings' was a good start to an intriguing series, 'Hidden Wings'. The storyline was fast paced and had nonstop action with creatures and kick-butt characters. Emma was a great lead. She had suffered such a huge loss, but she still went forward and kept her strong will up front and center. She adapted pretty well considering everything she thought she knew was not quite real. Kade is a special kind of character. I liked that the connection between him and Emma was pretty special and seemed quite powerful. I especially loved the beautiful poem at the end titled 'A Hidden Wings Poem' by Amber McCallister. This book is a great add to your tbr list.

Swoon, swoon, swoon! Cameo has done it again (surprised? I think not!)

This book did great at world building while keeping the pace of the read. It was hard to put down. Can't wait to read the next installment. The main character was relatable and I felt for her throughout the story.

I had this sweet book tucked away in my kindle for a while. Then one day I happened upon it and decided to give it a read. Hidden Wings didn't disappoint. After pacing through the first few chapters the the story escalated. Ms. Renae's talented writing seemed to step it up a notch and I couldn't swipe the pages fast enough. Not only did Hidden Wings have action packed sequences, secrets to be revealed, and utterly attractive guardians, we are blasted with a pure romance. What more can I say---except, I recommend Cameo Renae's book, Hidden Wings.

WOW!! This is a knock your socks off kinda book!! 17 year old Emma has her world turned upside down in a tragic accident. She feels alone in the world until she finds out about her aunt in...wait for it...ALASKA! Emma is moved up to this cold state and is introduced into a whole new world, one she could have never imagined existing let alone being a part of. She will face many challenges but she will not do it alone. Emma has guardians...HOTT guardians!! If she can make it to her 18th birthday with the help of her new found crew, her world will change once more. If you are debating whether or not to read this book, stop think and GO GET IT!! You will not put this book down unless your house is on fire!!

Â Hidden Wings

I am totally in love with this series! I have read all 5 books twice now and loved it just as much as the first. This is a fast paced, action packed, paranormal romance. The characters are well developed and have great chemistry. If you love great reads about hot angels you will love this series.
