I've been reading this book and enjoying the amazing photography. The amount of information, both written and visual, as well as the size of the book make it a great addition to any library. The 4 areas covered are actually 4 separate previous publications combined into one, and they are extremely informative. I'd recommend this to anyone who appreciates art, architecture and the culture of a country with a long and varied history. For what it's worth, there's a book called The Best of France: Paris, Brittany, Castles of loire and Provence, by the same publishers, which is comparable to this one in quality and quantity.

I was so taken by this large volume (with tons of gorgeous photos), which I had purchased because of my upcoming trip to these cities and areas in Italy, that I turned around and purchased another copy for my travel partner friend. She was as enamoured with it as I am. Great book, and I got it at a great price.

Bought this for a special friend. It was more than I had expected. I would like the book myself. Yes-recommend

This book has beautiful pictures and a lot of information. I was impressed with how fast I received this book and with the PRICE!

This book is amazing. It is so large, and has such beautiful pictures of Italy in it. Great buy for the book!!

The book was in the condition stated but was NOT the book in the photo. Rather, it was a much earlier edition. If I had paid full price, I would have returned it.

Just the kind of informational book I wanted before our trip to Italy.
