Hothead (Cal Ripken, Jr.'s All Stars)

Synopsis

Connor Sullivan is an All-Star shortstop on his Babe Ruth team, the Orioles. He can hit and field with the best of them, but he's got one big problem: his temper. When he strikes out or makes an error, he's a walking Mt. Vesuvius, slamming batting helmets and throwing gloves. His teammates are starting to avoid him, even his best friend Jordy. His coach is ready to kick him off the team.

Customer Reviews

My kid says he likes to read, but this book was the only one he read in one sitting. The characters are quite relatable and the dialogue has the pacing of witty kid banter. I appreciate books with a sportsmanship theme. In the story, Connor puts tremendous internal pressure on himself to be perfect at the sport. His trials, particularly his internal dialogue, were great for discussing with my own hothead. It is clear that this book is written from a place of love and wisdom for the game of baseball and the kids who relish playing it.

My son loves all the baseball books he can get his hands on! He is 10 years old and will read for hours every night.

My 8 year old, baseball-loving son, loves the Cal Ripken, Jr series. He can't wait for the next one to come out in March!

My daughter enjoyed it very much.

this book was really funny and good. cal ripken jr did amazing on the book. I strongly recommend to anyone who likes baseball and humor. He blew the book out of the park (baseball pun). The worst part of the whole book was when you finish hothead.

Conner is a frustrating person but is good at baseball he loses his temper a lot but helps his team win the championship Nice job cooner

Our reluctant 5th grade reader loved this book. :)
