Customer Reviews

Dr. Bramer is one of my favorite professors at Dallas Theological Seminary. His lectures are full of God's Word, wisdom, and lots of humor. I am ecstatic that he compiled all his biblical jokes into book form so I can share them with my Bible study class as well as reading them for my own amusement. God definitely has a sense of humor (look at the elephant and giraffe!). Dr. Bramer combines scripture and God's nature with good, clean fun, even lawyer jokes! Admittedly, some are groaners ("How do you know that the author of Hebrews used pest control in his vegetable garden?

Because he said, 'Lettuce spray.'") but even they still make you smile, if not laugh out loud. Every book of the Bible has jokes about it from creation to the prophets to the gospels, epistles and yes, even Revelation! Church members and non-church-goers alike will enjoy the jokes. Dr. Bramer pokes fun at church, "religious" people, clergy, and finds the humor in countless situations. A good resource for sermon preparation to lighten a serious topic!

Simply put, this book is a hit for giving jokes to the nursing home residents before and during the sermon I have prepared.

It's the first book of humor I've found that ties the stories, jokes and illustrations to specific Bible verses. Fun to read for anyone; but a must have for anyone who leads a Bible study or teaches from God's Word. I highly recommend this book.

I had Dr. Bramer while at Dallas Theological Seminary, and appreciated not just his clear teaching, but also his sense of humor! As a lead pastor with a full weekly preaching load, this book is a great tool to help communicate in a way that engages and maintains attention. I for one, am very grateful to have it sitting on my desk as a preaching resource. Would highly recommend it.

This is a great resource for teachers, preachers and speakers. Jokes and stories are arranged by Scripture reference and also indexed by topic. This is one reference book that will get continual use. I would recommend adding The Bible Reader's Joke Book to your library.

Bought this as a gift for my Sunday school teacher. He loved it!

Bought as a gift for our pastor. Stories inside are arranged by books of the Bible. Hopefully it will be a good resource for him.

I bought this for a friend who is a pastor and he absolutely loved it. The book was everything a joke lover wants!
