Synopsis

In H is for Hook: A Fishing Alphabet, seasoned angler Judy Young tackles topics such as types of lures, where to fish, and what equipment you will need, along with the basics of cleaning, filleting, and cooking your final catch. And since every fisherman loves to brag about the "one that got away," she includes suggestions on how to capture your fishing memories through journals and photography. For anglers everywhere, reading H is for Hook is the next best thing to being at the end of a fishing pole waiting to land that big one.

Judy Young has always had a fascination with words and a love of language, which she expresses through her poetry. Judy's poetry has won many awards and has been published in literary journals and magazines. Her interest in words and language also led her to receive a Masters in Arts in Speech and Language Pathology at the University of Tulsa in 1980. As a speech and language pathologist, Judy works with elementary children, helping them to understand and use language. She also encourages children to write by reading and discussing poetry in elementary classrooms. Judy and her husband, Ross, live in the country near Springfield, Missouri. They have a daughter, Brett, a son, Reid, and five dogs.

Obsessed with this book! My family is full of outdoors men that are all about to have children- I will be repurchasing this book for each of them when they start their own families! The illustrations are beautiful and I love that this is a book that can grow with children as they mature. For younger kids you can simply look at the alphabet letters and pictures, as they get older there are some simpler rhymes in larger print on the book, and as kids get older there are fun facts about fishing in smaller print on the sides of the pages. LOVE this book- A must have for little fishermen!

Super cute book, good pictures

Beautiful illustrations.

We love this series of books

This is a really beautiful book!

Great item well priced and shipped fast. Buy with confidence from this seller!

I have a hard time holding my 3 year old sons interest in trying to learn his letters. His twin sister is leaps ahead of him. He LOVES fishing, so I gave this a try and it worked! He loves reading this book and has learned a few more letters because of it and the fish foam letters that we bought as well.

This alphabet book moves along smoothly with engaging artwork and rhythmic verse. Very enjoyable for adults and young readers to share together.
