Customer Reviews

I have used this Spiritual Journey workbook for years in my women's counseling ministry. My ministry is to women who are not substance abusers but are but suffer emotional bondage from problems and circumstances in their past as well as currently. It is a most effective tool. It works for programs for those suffering from substance abuse as well.

God led me to start a support group called Beauty for Ashes. 12 step: A Spiritual Journey has been used as a guide in this support group since 2008. With the help of Gods word it not only allows the individual to look deeply within themselves, for instance focusing on behavior characteristics, it also aides in Gods healing process.

The cover was different but the inside is the same and great!

good resource

Excellent workbook with thought-provoking questions. A group can go through the 12 steps together in several different schedules, whatever works best for them. Highly recommended!

Finally, I realize I am not the only one who knew Jesus Christ was/is my Higher Power; He has to be the Force behind what drove me. The Christian tones of Bob and Bill are revealed at root level of what inspired them to start AA. Scripture will be revealed in such a powerfull way to those of us who have for so long been rejected and despised because of our disease of addiction, to find that we have a more powerful witness than those that have not reached our depths or that think their proclivity to intoxicate is trivial. The lowest shall be the highest, the last shall be the first. You will keep this book and you will give it away. I have gifted many copies. David B.

It did not appear as the photos. Old addition sent

This book will change your life if you do it right! I highly recommend it for small group.
