Mail Order Bride: Christmas Hope And Redemption

Synopsis

Christmas Hope & Redemption  Can the Lord find love for three lonely couples and one baby lost in a storm?  on SALE for a limited time or FREE on Kindle Unlimited Three western romances in one interlinked story. When Grace and Hopes pa dies he asks them to write to two men he has picked out of the paper, and that they must promise to marry them soon. So the sisters part and become mail order brides. Grace ends up on a ranch with Dempsey, a handsome man but somehow there is a wall between them. Maybe it is her grief but she does not know. One night they hear a cry in the storm and find Rose and baby Violet almost frozen in the rain. Rose is a young widow with a troubled past. She was on her way to an orphanage when she took the wrong road. Believing that everyone has abandoned her even God she was ready to give in. Maybe God had plans for her all along. Grant Hawkins works on the ranch and he is taken by baby rose and her ma, but can he break down the barriers of Rose's past or will it destroy them both? Hope had been married to a miner just like her pa, and just like him he is dying. He makes her promise that she will live life to the full and find love. After his death Hope goes to her sisters house and falls in love with Dempsey's cousin, only his past is making things difficult. When he lies to her she runs out into a storm and becomes lost. Will he find her in time? Can she forgive him? With Christmas fast approaching is there hope for these three couples. Will they find the faith they need to reclaim their happiness? On SALE for a limited time or FREE on Kindle Unlimited. This is a sweet and clean western romance and is suitable for all ages.

Customer Reviews

This is not one, but three wonderfully woven stories about mail order brides - sister and a new friend. Two sisters promise their father on his deathbed to marry the two men he has chosen for them. Through out this book, you see how being positive can lead to wonderful things. The author shows the human insecurities of life through these women and men. This book was a quick and enjoyable read.

Three couples lives intertwining and evolving into full-blown loves with true depth. Well-developed plot and characters. Action, emotion, history. Fast read but long enough to have time to enjoy immensely.

Great story, good author.

The story line was good with realistic problems that people face. There were a couple swear words that were not fitting in the same book as references to God. I think the author could have come up with better words that don't offend the readership.

Was great

This story of three women and how scared they were of the unknown but kept on going on . Great job.

A well put together story of friendships developing,young couples getting to know &trust each other, and new life coming. Delightfully written where all ages can enjoy .Thank you Indiana.

Another great book about the mail order brides. I enjoyed every word of your book and will be looking for more. Keep them coming, and I'll keep reading. Thanks so much.
