Customer Reviews

Highly recommended to both new and experienced project managers as the contributors provide their best project management teachings. Each brief segment contains nuggets of practical tips that can be immediately applied. Each author appears to have been carefully selected for both their experience and ability to communicate. You end up wanting to hear more after reading each segment. It's that good.

Excellent Book! The book gives you the perspective of 25 Project Managers regarding their keys to success. The book is an excellent read and offers excellent advice.

Well written. Understands how the profession works and the challenges we face. Fun to read. Tools to immediately apply. Strongly recommend.

Good book for beginners.

A simple fast read with prescriptions for success from 25 project managers who have been there, done it and got the tee shirt.
