This is not the Op-Center I am use to. It took about 20 chapters to actually get into the book. Steve Pieczenik does an Auto Biography from everyone from the United Nations Janitor to just about everyone in Pol Pots Renegade Army. Op Center isn't mentioned much until Chapter 28. The only one that is really mentioned in this book about Op Center is Paul Hood. I put this book down 4 times because I was loosing Interest and had to fight to pick it up again. The other Op Center books i bought keep you in the book from start to finish but not this one. Save your money and skip this one, Its a joke. It will end up in the recycle bin, I hope Steve wrote this book on a Friday, because that will explain the poor job he did on it.

Such an amazing book, so much different cultures and action. History was revealed about things that I didn't know and was very interesting.

Good read. Typical Clancy-ish, even though written by somebody else.

The story was rather predictable and a little slow at times. No attempt to finish the sub story of his relationship with his wife vs op-center.

Arrived on time. Great story for OP center fans!!!

I could hardly wait to learn what happens after guests at the UN are taken hostage. This copycat Clancy is fun to read.

I know this young man and he is and was a great inspiration. This book tells it all. God bless.

I enjoyed it, but I felt it tppk to long. To develop the story. Get to the point faster.
