Customer Reviews

This is a really lovely manuscript notebook that is just the right size for tucking into an instrument case and not too small to notate legibly in. Space is plentiful if you are notating on only one clef, but maybe a little tight if you're using both treble and bass. The paper is nice, but it's not fancy. Cute gift for a music teacher.*complimentary review sample provided but I bought more to give as teacher gifts.

Good print quality (clear and solid thin black lines), front and back covers aren't like composition notebook covers - they're sort of flimsier cardstock which isn't great if you carry them in a backpack ever. It's definitely better than the other tiny notebooks that Hal Leonard sells, especially with as many pages as it has. Page numbers are an okay tradeoff for unperforated pages. All in all basically the best staff notebook I've found, but with regular and grid notebooks as $1 a pop, the price is still higher than I'd like, and the covers weaker. Definitely a good buy, but be aware of a couple issues.

My daughter is a music major in college. She was so excited to have her manuscript paper in such a pretty book. Great price and well made. Arrived quickly and well protected.

Overall I am really happy with this purchase. It came relatively quickly and I was quite happy about it. The only issue I have about it is that the cover/back of it looks like it could rip easily or something.

I haven't had it for too long so I will have to see. The binding makes me feel like the whole book wont come apart. I am really pleased with this purchase because it is what I needed.

Nice, & the physical size is easy to work with. The staves are a bit small for me so you have to draw smaller note heads. There are an even amount of staves (12) so it works well for piano composition. I'm not sure how easily or cleanly these pages will tear out. I think this is a good choice for portability.

I love it, it's exactly what it says. It even has a glossary in the back for italian music terms ie allegro, accelerando, etc. I recommend this to all musicians wishing to jot down the music in their heads!

This is just what I was looking for. The cover is beautiful and the quality of both the paper and the print couldn't be better. You won't regret it.

Absolutely gorgeous cover and perfect staff pages for my daughter to use in her college classes. Wonderful!!
