Customer Reviews

I bought this book hoping to be able to play with the cd music in the background or to play the background part while someone else was singing, but I'm sorry to say that this just might have been way too easy for me. I was hoping for at least a little challenge, but I guess that will be finding someone to accompany me with the piano part or finding a new book with violin duets. The 13 songs were great choices and included familiar tunes such as Blessed Be Your Name, Everlasting God, God of Wonders, Here I am to Worship (Light of the World), How Great is Our God, Indescribable, and You are My All in All.

The cd is missing the last two songs!!! Very very very disappointed. It would be nice if it also included a simple lead sheet, hard page turns in this book..... But besides that I love it. Simple and sweet, tracks sound great and also in easy keys. It sounds awesome with my panflute , perfect middle range.....

I bought these sheets to impress my wife but she already knew everything on the sheets. She commented about them being great for apprentices and intermediate violin/piano players.

This book is perfect for those students who read music fairly well and want to learn chord charts and improv. I have used it for students who want to play in worship bands. I teach them the song with notes first. Then, we go to the chord charts (I write the chords in) and play along with the CD. It's like playing with a band, and they learn to play chord charts and fills.

Nice arrangements. Good for a church that uses more contemporary music. We use them for sight-reading practice at home. Piano accompaniment parts are simple enough to learn quickly.

Very nicely arranged

These are nice praise and worship pieces. I will probably play one or two in church but there is a lot of music and not much for the violin to play.

The CD includes demos which is helpful. I just didn't like the accompaniment as well as some. It's simply personal preference and a great choice for Youth.
