Customer Reviews

I bought this German version after being pleased with the French version I had purchased previously. Basically both versions use the same drawings and content, with only the vocabulary and grammar changed to fit the occasion. While the level is easier than the Oxford German Vocabulary builder based on Claire Bretscher's cartoons, it is not really a basic textbook and would be better either as a review of basic grammar and vocabulary or in conjunction with a beginning German course. Otherwise the illustrations are well done and the vocabulary judiciously selected, so it is recommended as a fun tool to help you improve your German.
