Customer Reviews

I have been practicing this Abraham-Hicks Law of Attraction processes for over 10 years now and it has changed my life. I am happy, relaxed, positive and filled with a sense of well-being every day of my life. Whatever I desire just comes to me, no effort. I'm so glad that I found this book years ago to begin my journey toward a life of well-being. Recently, my son asked me what would be the best book for him to learn how to live like I do and I immediately suggested this book and had it sent to him. It gives very clear and easy to follow descriptions of the Law of Attraction, the Law of Deliberate Creating and the Law of Allowing and how they work in our lives. At the end of the book are a series of practices to help you to change your perspectives on life and learn new positive habits of thinking. I couldn't recommend it more. It's the basics and it works better than you can imagine. My daughter called me last night and mentioned she had seen the book at her brother's house and wanted to learn more about how it works, so another has gone out to her. It is delightful to know my children are on their way to being as happy as I am. I never would have suggested it unless they asked. But as the title says, "Ask And It Is Given".

The best description of the world we live in, our relationship to it and to the inhabitants of it. A masterpiece of simplicity in explaining the true nature of our Beingness and our one true function. If you are drawn to read this and then find resonance with the practices, it will change your life - and quickly! The Law of Attraction drew you to this review so you may as well read the book...

Got this for my husband, he said it's good book.
