Customer Reviews

African memories by Ndeye Labadens delivers a unique understanding of this talented author and her connection to the motherland. By sharing key aspects of her life while growing up through the vast countries of Africa, Ndeye Labadens gives readers a true depiction of the old saying , there is no place like home. Through out this memoir, the author projects a variety of emotional and relatable impulses that will ensnare it's audience.- Boss Kelly

This is a very interesting book. I learned a lot about Africa, and about its countries. I advise everyone to read it, especially those who love to travel.

This book is quite adventurous!! I can't believe the author was actually in a plane crash!! Not everyone can live to tell that!! Quite interesting to see what it's like to live in other places!! Great book!

Wow, it's a reminder how big the world is and gives you an insight to the joy of traveling and enjoying other cultures. Great job. A must read!!!!

Great read, I love this author she always surprises me
